

Newspaper editorials not only reflect public opinion; they mould it.

—CARL W. ACKERMAN, Dean of the Columbia University Graduate School of Journalism.

972.08

486494

The taking of property without compensation is not expropriation. It is confiscation.

—SECRETARY OF STATE CORDELL HULL, in a Note to the Mexican Government.

Copyright, 1939, by Standard Oil Company (N.J.)

This book, or parts thereof, may be reproduced upon request to the publishers.

Printed in the U. S. A.

MEXICO AT THE BAR OF PUBLIC OPINION

*A Survey of Editorial Opinion in Newspapers of
The Western Hemisphere*

By BURT M. McCONNELL
Member of The Literary Digest
Editorial Staff, 1919-1929

MAIL AND EXPRESS PUBLISHING COMPANY
160 Varick Street New York, N. Y.

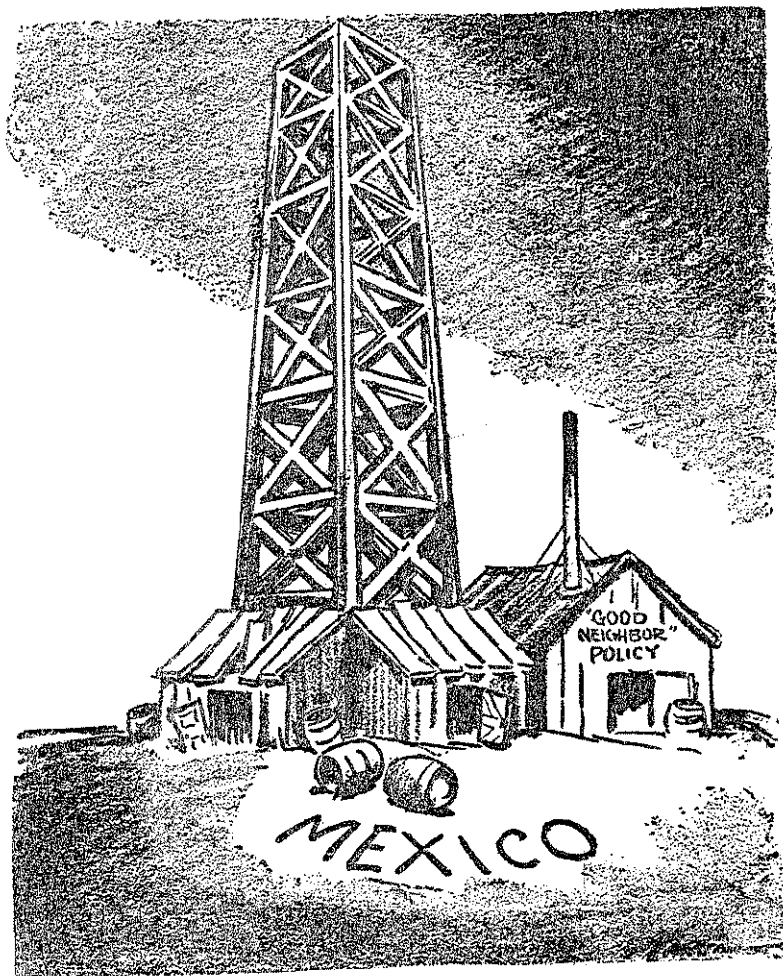

1939

Poor Way to Pick Apples

—Reprinted from the Newark, N. J., Ledger.

Another "Gusher" Gone Dry?

—Reprinted from the Chattanooga, Tenn., Times.

You're My Sweetie Now!

—Reprinted from the Washington Post.

Mexican Version of Bronx Cheer

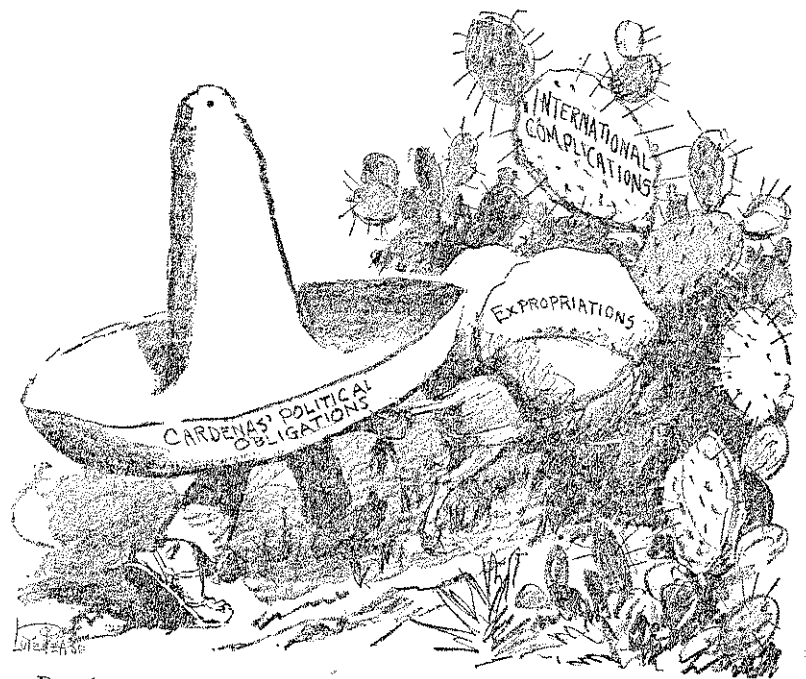

—Reprinted from the Miami, Fla., Herald.

Generous Neighbor

—Reprinted from the Austin, Texas, Statesman.

Mexican "Seeing Eye"

—Reprinted from the Newark, N. J., News.

Internal Strife

—Reprinted from the Houston, Texas, Chronicle.

Careful, Young Fellow!

—Reprinted from the Brooklyn Eagle.

One Moment Please!

—Reprinted from the Washington Post.

Upon My Honor!

—Reprinted from the Philadelphia Inquirer.

How to Start Your Car These Cold Winter Mornings?

—Reprinted from the Plainfield, N. J., Courier-News.

The Good Neighbor

—Reprinted from the Columbus, Ohio, Dispatch.

It Takes Two to Make Good Neighbors

—Reprinted from the Hartford, Conn., Courant.

Another Little Brother Problem!

—Reprinted from the Jefferson, Texas, Jimplecute.