

supposed we were the only country in the world that didn't have the bomb instead of being the only one that had it.

Some secrets did get out, and it only takes one or two espionage cases to create general talk about "all those fellows" giving away "all our secrets." But we don't get security by belaboring science in general, locking all the wrong doors, and shackling our own scientific progress.

Sep 49—On the news of the first Russian atomic explosion